HOWARD AK9F SK

It is with deep sadness and regret that we report the passing of Howard Dybedock AK9F. Past KARS president, and technical advisory committee member, Howard founded KARSFEST by financially backing the first fest personally. In his over 35 years as a KARS member/officer, Howard donated equipment worth thousands of dollars and arranged most of the club repeater tower space. He was a contester, preferring CW & RTTY, an aerobic pilot, blue water sailor, musician and friend to all. He will be greatly missed.

TRIBUTE TO AK9F

Long serving former KARS president, John WD9AYI has written a moving and fitting tribute.

Howard was a giant among men. His wisdom, knowledge, humor, and demeanor will be greatly missed. To even try to emulate Howard would be a monumental task. He was truly the epitome of what a person should strive to be. I am sure that anyone who ever met Howard will be deeply shaken by the news. My deepest sympathy to Howard's family and friends.
John, WD9AYI.

FOXHUNTING: THEN AND NOW

FOXHUNTING IN THE FIFTIES

By Maury W4HYB

Because the subject of the presentation at this Tuesday's club meeting, I thought the following story might bring a few smiles. It was the summer of 1955 and KARS was holding its annual transmitter hunt on 75 meters (3920 Khz). My good friend Elmira Smith, WN9KNF, and I, W9QAY, were the hidden transmitter operators. We were in my 1956 Oldsmobile running an Elmac A54 with a base loaded antenna on the deck.

We went out to Elmira's father's (W9CVW) farm where the club held its field day for several years. We opened a fence that allowed us to drive up a grass waterway to about the center of a corn field. We were completely hidden from any road as the corn was a good 7 or 8 feet high at the time. Everything was going well except that a thunderstorm was brewing and the background noise on 75 was slowly increasing. Elmira happened to look out the back window and exclaimed that the antenna was lighting up purple. Sure enough it was every time I'd squeeze the mike. With that, I decided to pull the antenna coax off the relay box. As the PL-259 pulled away from the coax jack, the arc followed it out about a good inch or more. I quickly plugged the connector back in, started the engine and got out of there fast as we were sitting ducks for a lightening strike. Scared the you know what out of us. Much fun and an experience I'll never forget.

Best regards,
Maury Shumaker, W4HYB
